

RCE Saskatchewan recognizes 29 initiatives at 11th annual awards ceremony in 2019

posted on May 13, 2019

Congratulations to the 29 recipients of 2019 Sustainability Awards, presented by RCE Saskatchewan on Wednesday, May 8 at Hannin Creek Education and Applied Research Centre on the shores of Candle Lake. Photos of the event are posted on <https://twitter.com/SaskRCE>. Watch the full ceremony on video, or the video of guest keynote speaker Charles Hopkins, UNESCO Chair at York University on Re-orienting Education for Sustainable Development.

Since 2007, the annual RCE Saskatchewan Education for Sustainable Development Recognition Event has honoured local individuals, groups and organizations that have made innovative achievements in education that builds capacity for sustainable development in Saskatchewan and that help contribute to the 17 UN Sustainable Development Goals (2015-2030). Held in a different community each year, the event shines a spotlight on projects from across the province. For more information on applying for an award or participating in the event, visit www.rceskreognitionevent.